We Also Take Care Of Our Employees.

Plaza Medical Center of Fort Worth was awarded the 2008 Texas Workforce Commission Employer of the Year Award. This award honors employers who are actively involved with their local workforce and have made a positive impact on employees and the community. Plaza Medical Center is an equal opportunity employer, and has invested heavily in its people and the overall workplace environment. The Employer of the Year Workforce Award recognizes the use by an employer of creative and innovative approaches to the recruiting, training and retention of workers, as well as the upgrading of their skills.
